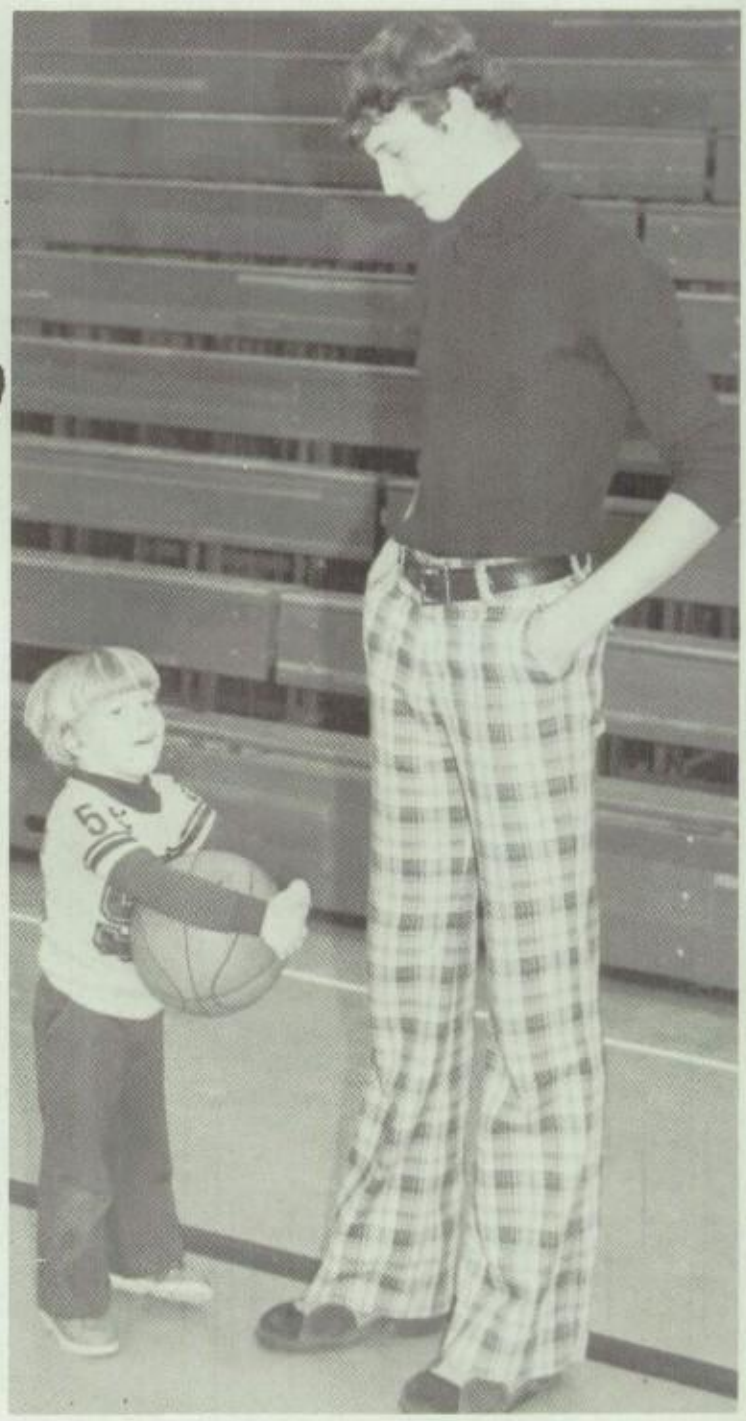
FRESHMEN

The freshman class had a total enrollment of ninety-seven students. This was the largest enrollment of all four classes.

The freshmen really put forth their best effort when they constructed a football homecoming float. They chose "The Sting" as their theme, which placed second. Their homecoming attendant was Lisa Seeley. She was escorted by Doug Hughes.

Two freshman girls, Karen VanArsdalen and Lisa Seeley, were delegates to the Lenawee County Mock Youth Convention, which was held on the Adrian College campus. It was an enlightening experience for both girls, as they learned how real conventions are conducted and how convention officers are elected.

The freshman class enjoyed their first year of high school under the leadership of their advisers, Mr. Baxter and Mr. McKelvey.



1. Roger Stover thinks about taking the basketball away from Scotty McKelvey, but decides that Scotty looks too tough.
2. CLASS OFFICERS: L-R: Karen Johncox, Treas.; Ivy Davis, Sec.; Jim Green, Sgt.-at-Arms; Karla Kruse, V. Pres.; Jack Terry, Pres.; and Mr. McKelvey, Adviser. Mr. Baxter was also an adviser.

MAKE SOMEONE HAPPY

Reach out and touch
Someone you love
Make someone happy

Put on your smile

76 JUNIORS

The years go by so fast. It seems like yesterday when these Juniors started out as Freshmen, running around the halls trying to get their lockers open.

But this year they're Juniors and they had a lot of plans to make. Their homecoming representative was Sabrina Stevens with Cort Zachel as her escort. In the float competition they took first place with the float title, "Movin' on to Victory."

Following the decisions of two former Junior classes, the 74-75 class voted against a J-Hop also. But they did sponsor a Junior-Senior Banquet, which is always a big event.

The class did well on the annual Junior class candy sales.

This year the Juniors received their class rings the summer before school started instead of in the fall.

This class helped make the year fun.

1. The Junior class officers for the 1974-75 year are: (l-r) Mike McVay, President; Jamie VanArsdalen, Vice President; Doris Taylor, Secretary; Theresa Foster, Treasurer; Pat Adams, Sgt. at Arms. The advisors are Dave Moyer and Diane Richardson. 2. Top candy salesmen were: (l-r) Donna Joughin, Diane Shaffer, and Pat Adams. 3. A few Juniors display their rings.

RESTLESSNESS

I once had a moonbeam
Light upon my shoulder.
And as cold as it seemed,
It began getting colder.

And the greenness of the supple grass,
With the dew-drops forming peacefully,
Was all that anyone could ask,
Or ever hope to see.

And the brook there beside me
Gently babbled on its song,
And its tears that flowed were tellin' me
That the time was near, It wouldn't be too long.

And the leaves perched upon the trees
One by one began to fall,
And, defeated, they kissed the ground,
And never once did they make a sound.
Then the wind came gusting 'round,
And took them all away . . .
And took my dreams all away.

I glanced around and saw the brook
Had taken on an icy look,
As its mournful tears
Had finally ceased to flow.

Then the frost set in
And the grass had lost its gleam,
And its hue was gone
And it was no longer green.

So I stood there in the silence,
Just me and my moonbeam.
But soon the dreaded clouds came crowding 'round
And coaxed my moonbeam to fly away . . .
And now she's gone away.

by Jack Farquhar

I REMEMBER

by D. R. Arquette

When I see the golden sunset, flooding the horizon,
I remember
The sunsets we shared, your hand in mine, the late evening sun, streaming down the mountains.

When the white fluffs sail gaily on above me
I remember
When we walked for miles arm in arm, talked for eons,
And I rested cradled in your arms.

When you appear, smiling, in my dreams, and your lips meet mine,
I awake saddened by the loss of your wisdom,
the distance between us,
and I remember.

We never talked about the end, though we both knew it had to come
A lifetime can fit into five days if you try -
Lord knows we tried.
Time could not stop for us, would not stop for us
It's so very hard to tell someone you love goodbye
I remember.

WINTER

Dark wintery skies
Clouds whirl fiercely. Snow showers.
Coldly, I shiver.

by Diane Dean

No-one knows me
I'm not the person I seem to be
I do things I don't believe in
I say things I don't mean
I'm not really me
I'm the person people want me to be.

by Louise Wiles

"MR. MARATHON"

In the cool of the dawn
Or in the heat of the sun,
There's a lonely figure
On the run.

Traveling up mountains
And down valleys deep,
No one but to himself,
His thoughts must he keep.

The pace becomes onerous,
The body grows weary,
The breath is a pant,
The eyes become teary.

But to run is his life
The thing he likes best,
No torture at all,
To him it's a rest.

He'll stop when he's dying
And not a step sooner.
Just call this fanatic
A long-distance runner.

The Junior Varsity football team reversed their season's record. This year they were 3 wins and 5 losses; the previous year they were 5 wins and 3 losses.

The joy of victory came when the team defeated Sand Creek, Grass Lake, and Ida.

The J.V.'s were coached by two new coaches, head coach; Dave McKelvey, and assistant coach; Tim Aldrich.

A lot of things combine to make a good season for any team. A very successful team has skillful players, works together, strives to do their best and struggles at times. This team did all this, they fell, got back up, working harder and believing that they could "MAKE IT HAPPEN." This confidence was all they needed for a successful season. As for the state tournaments it was a thrill never to be duplicated and for any coach; it is a dream come true.
Thanks,

Coach Johnson

...

For the first time in 6 years of girl's basketball competition, this years girl's team went all the way to State semi-finals. The girls worked hard and won districts, regionals, and quarter-finals before losing by 3 points in the State semi-final game to Ontonagon. Even though our girls lost they placed fourth in the state for class C, which is an accomplisment itself.

This year's team had two players who made LCAA league teams. Emilie Mansfield made first team, Jamie VanArsdalen made second team. Connie Herman made honorable mention.

Their overall record for this year was 18 wins and 2 losses. In LCAA league play they were second place behind Hudson with a record of 6 wins and 1 loss. A heartbreaker to Hudson by one point.

The top three scorers this year are Jamie VanArsdalen, 258, Emilie Mansfield, 159, and Debbie Shaffer, 132. CONGRATULATIONS, to girls and coach for such an outstanding year.

Maybe
this is meant to be a dream
When it is over
it is gone,
like a dream goes when I wake up.
Nothing I can take with me
brings me back to it,
All I have is memories
There may be some night when I am sad thinking back to it and knowing it is gone.
But I am not sorry for having had it.
I was happy
and learned a little
It is worth
spending a day remembering,
even with tears
When the evening comes
I may have another dream almost as good as this.

The boy's track and field team suffered the pains of youth and rebuilding, winning only one dual meet during the 1975 season. But their fortunes improved as the season entered in the latter stages taking fourth in the league meet and fourth in the ATII all county meet. Morenci was also represented in the state meet by Orlin Swimmer in the long jump and the 180 yard low hurdles. Also Tom Green, Terry Pennington and John Gillen teamed with Orlin in the mile relay. COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Cooperative education (Co-op) at Morenci Area High School is conducted in cooperation with Lenawee Vo-Tec Center and local employers. A training plan must be approved before students may be placed on a job.

Generally, only seniors will be considered for co-op. Applications should be completed before the end of the junior year. In most cases the student is expected to find his own job; however, help may be obtained from the coordinator if necessary. A student must be enrolled in a related class, such as education for employment or consumer education, to be placed on the co-op program.

To work on co-op you have to maintain a good attitude and have appropriate dress for the job. Students placed in the co-op program are considered to be on probation the first two weeks. During that time the coordinator will make several visits to check on job performance and attitude. At the end of two weeks, a choice will be made as to whether the student will remain on the job or placed back in the classroom. The students attend the co-op banquet in May, and take their employer as their guest.
